

CHAPTER II - POWER AND DUTIES OF ITS OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES

The powers and duties of the officers and employees of the Company stems mainly from the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and Memorandum & Articles of Association of the Company. The officers and employees of the Company are appointed as per policy of the organisation in order to carry out the business operations of the Company in line with the objectives specified in the Memorandum of Association of the Company

While discharging duties and responsibilities, officers and employees of the Company are complying with the applicable provisions of the all-applicable statues and rules and regulations framed there under.

Since RailTel Corporation of India Limited is a Government Company registered under the provisions of the Companies Act, 1956, the powers and duties of its Directors and conduct of its business is regulated by the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013, the Memorandum and Articles of Association of the Company and other enactment under various laws.

The powers to manage the affairs of the Company rest with the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors has authorized the Chairman and Managing Director to exercise all or any of the powers vested in the Board for the management and administration of the company except certain matters for which the approval of the Board or the President of India or the shareholders, as the case may be, shall be necessary. The Chairman & Managing Director, in turn, has delegated various powers up to certain limit to the officers of the Company.